SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Although it is an interesting point of view, this article is an editorial and not a review. I would recommend to be rejected and I would suggest the authors to submit it again as an editorial. It needs some language polishing, tough.

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Although the subject is topical and the reading of this paper is interesting, it does not fit into any form of the review article. This short paper explains few novel information about CMV but does not provide information or suggestion about future direction. I strongly suggest including addition sentences about future direction in the conclusion.
