COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

In the present manuscript, the authors analyze the differential factors between colorectal cancer patients of Han and Hui ethnicities in the Beijing region. Overall, the manuscript is very well written. Some concerns are listed below. 1 The author reported that they identify six prognostic factors, however, these factors are universal known prognosis factors for CRC patients and these results might not be considered as results of the manuscript, this section should be revised. 2 Different number of patients is show for each characteristic in Table 1 and 2. Please check them. 3 The references can be updated.
