COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This paper report a very unusual and interesting case of abdominal lymphangiomatosis. A thorough revision of the literature and a good description of the clinical case were made. A short comment about protein losing enteropathy is necessary in the text. Also, it is advisable to mention that lymphangiomatosis can also be observed in the kidneys. There are some mistakes in the wording in English: a) "From this case and related the literature review...." Is better to write "From this case and literature review". (Abstract and Core Tip). b) "CA12-5" in case report. The correct word is "CA-125". I recommend the publication of this very rare clinical case.
