COMMENTS TO AUTHORS
1. In this manuscript, the author sometimes use the sentence 'poorly patient complicance'. But I should change this sentence for 'poorly patient compliance'. 2. Comments on gastroretentive drug delivery systems are keys of this paper. More charts, especially for Bioadhesive systems, Floating-bioadhesive systems, and Expandable systems, definitely can help us to gain a deeper understanding.

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS
The authors of the paper report an overview of gastroretentive drug delivery systems and their application for the treatment of H. pylori infections. The manuscript is well organized and bibliography quite updated. Please add some reviews recently published on this topic. Some typographical and language mistakes should be corrected.
