COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

1- There are some punctuation mistakes to be corrected. 2- The author mentioned Turkey as an example for developing country... even if Turkey is sometimes classified as a developing country, yet the socioeconomic and the sanitary state is comparable to those in developed countries. 3- The reference numbered 6 is actually two references one of them (Thomas JE, Dale A, Harding M, Coward WA, Cole TJ, Weaver LT. Helicobacter pylori Colonization in Early Life. Pediatric Research 1999; 45: 218-223.) and the second is (Yücel O, Sayan A, Yildiz M. The factors associated with asymptomatic carriage of Helicobacter pylori in children and their mothers living in three socio - economic settings. Jpn J Infect Dis. 2009; 62(2):120 - 124.) This will entails complete revision of the manuscript and relocation of the corresponding references. 4- English is sometimes American(centers)and is British (centres) in other areas.
