COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

In the present paper, a review of alimentary tract duplications in newborns and children was conducted to evaluate types of duplications, etiology, diagnosis, and treatment, including an endoscopic procedure. As authors mentioned, endoscopic treatment of duplications will be widely accepted. The manuscript is clear and well presented.

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The manuscript is a well-done review of alimentary tract duplications in children with special emphasis on laparoscopic treatment modalities. Epidemiologic and diagnostic workup aspect could be described a little bit more in detail.
