COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The manuscript entitled "Hepatic actinomycosis: Report of one case and analysis of 32 literatures" is very well written. In this manuscript, the authors reported a case of primary liver cancer with hepatic actinomycosis. And also 32 cases in the literatures were reviewed. Some minor revisions needed before the publication. 1 The manuscript need editing carefully, many blanks before the comma or period. 2 Some language polishing shuld be corrected. 3 Are there any new reports in the literatures? If so, please make a discussiion.
