COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The authors should focus on improving the english language of the manscript. The classification of the CIMP pathway should be presented in the tabulated form. The references like Sameer et al., 2013, 2014, and other new ones should be necessarily cited.

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

A review like this is a hard task, especially when written in a foreign language. I suggest a revision of the language as multiple faults hamper easy understanding of the text and also suggest a certain revision in order to facilitate prompt understanding and enhance the educational role of the work in which I don't find major flaws or faults
