COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Al-toma et al presented a review article about the haematopoietic stem cell transplantation for non-malignant gastrointestinal diseases. Generally, this manuscript is informative for readers in field. Some minor points are listed as below: Points: 1.Fragmentation of the current content is the major concern. Re-organization of the contents with clear and logic category is strongly suggested. 2.Poor consistency in contents, particularly for the Reference section, needs to be improved. 3.The references should be updated. 4.There are some grammar and typo errors in manuscript.
