COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Drs. de Vries et al provide a systemic review on PSC-IBD characteristics compare to UC and IBD. There are some different from other published papers, but there are several important issues in the manuscript.

1. There is no statistic analysis (or meta-analysis) in this manuscript. How to get the results and conclusion for the distinctive phenotypes and characteristics of PSC-IBD by the authors?
2. The English language should be thoroughly revised by naive English spoken people. There are the spellings and grammar mistakes within manuscript.
