COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Major Comment: This manuscript provides an interesting review on chemopreventive effects of phytochemicals on colorectal cancer and their mechanisms. Due to lacking studies in the literature, some parts have to remain vague and speculative, but this is not the authors' fault. Minor Comment: Some language polishing is still required (e.g., "there is no conflicts" (p.2), "chemotherapy regiment" (p.3: Abstract), "anatomic extend" (p.13), "...have used various resveratrol precursor" (p.14), etc.).
