COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Dear Authors, Article Anticancer activity of linalool via cancer-specific hydroxyl radical generation in human colon cancer, provides significant and interesting results regarding the anticancer mechanism of linalool by inducing apoptosis specifically in cancer cells via lipid peroxidation. In Abstract section there are several disagreements on methods which are stated in Material and Methods section? Please, verify which are correct? In Results section there are some technical? errors i.e. repeated figures, x-axis marking? Why choose to not present values for AST and ALT?
