SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Kupitzki et al wrote a review article about surgical management of small intestinal neuroendocrine tumors (NETs). The paper is well written and Authors discussed several aspects of the topic, including perioperative octreotide and prophylactic cholecystectomy. Main comments: 1) My only relevant criticism is that a paragraph regarding surgical therapy of liver metastasis (including liver transplantation) is missing. 2) A linguistic revision is necessary (e.g. imagining - - > imaging).
