COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The manuscript require some clarifications 1. What the authors mean with "sub dermal reconstruction?-in both cases they state this 2. In the firs case the author state that patient had "suture failure" what do they mean? "leakage"? they said that patient do not had mediastinal infection so they need ti clarify

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This is a nice case report on the subject of esophageal perforation after endoscopic submucosal dissection. The manuscript requires some language polishing. Otherwise, it can be accepted for publication.
