SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

In the current study, the authors provide a Editorial to the role of autophagy in colorectal cancer. They suggested that combination therapy of several chemotherapeutic agents and autophagy inhibitors such as hydroxychloroquine would represent a major step that could be evaluated as a putative therapeutic strategy in mCRC patients. Overall,

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This paper mainly introduced the upgraded role of autophagy in colorectal carcinomas. The author discusses three parts respectively, namely, the role of oncogenes in autophagy initiation, the controversial role of autophagy in CRC and the autophagy in clinical practice. I think this editorial is interesting. However, there are some questions
