COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

It is a retrospective study of an uncommon subtype of colorectal carcinoma. The author statized some information of this cancer including the age, location, stages, metastasis, recurrence and survival. 1) In the discussion, the author gave some treatment suggestions based on the literature. I think they should supply more data on the treatment information on their own patients. 2) There are some language mistakes. Please check the manuscript carefully to correct them. 3) Nonspecialist don't know some of the abbreviation, such as NACTRT, AC et al. Please give the full name at first use.
