SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Dear authors, I think the authors attached the wrong PDF file instead of what should be the “Non-Native Speakers of English Editing Certificate”. Please review the contents of the file. The main text is well-written, well-balanced, and covers a wide range of the stem cell research field. However, there is one concern; since the SCIPIO trial (Page 36) has been formally retracted from the LANCET, the numerical data from the paper should not appear. Aside from the aforementioned points, I have no concerns or inquiry for this paper, and it would be acceptable for publication.
