COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

1.The main and running title was not accurate. In my mind, "rectal prolapse" belongs to the category of "pelvic floor disorders". 2.Please unify the format of references. For examole: Page numbers were not written out in Ref. No. 9, 36, 54, 69, and 76. 3.Table1, 2 and 3 should be shown by using three line table form.

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This is an excellent review on the various surgical procedures for pelvic floor disorders This review is well written and suitable for publication My only remark is that rectal prolapse is a pelvic floor disorder, and therefore I would prefer to change the title to Surgery in pelvic floor disorder
