COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Nice review, but too long and too extensive. A reader non-surgical and non scientific cannot understand the text, because there are too much single numbers. You have to shorten the manuscript. F.e. you can explain sensitivities in tables etc.

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This manuscript is indeed valuable as presented particularly to endoscopy specialists. The contents appears to be interesting; however write-up diminishes the overall enthusiasm. I think, the paper should be summarized and shortened to allow WJGE readers to follow and understand the content.

The body of the text is too long. If the manuscript will be shorten can give more impressive message to the readers.
