COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This letter is well written and interesting and stresses the importance of general public involvement in knowledge of liver diseases. People themselves can then become ambassadors for increased funds assigned to diagnose and treat liver diseases.

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The manuscript entitled "Lot to give, got to live: the restless minds of the "Liver on Tour" project by Guilherme Macedo et al. is telling us how they encourage people in Portuguese towns to have awareness on liver health and associated problems. Such activities should be made public so that people in other countries can see what are done to encourage people to take care of their liver health.

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This is an interesting Clinical experience recovered from Portuguese Physicians and members of Portuguese Association of the Liver, on a Tour to inform population about risk factors regarding liver Health. Authors could include the small questionnaire that they gave to truck visitors in order to help other liver specialists to perform similar activity. This issue could improve quality of the manuscript.
