COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The manuscript by Benitez JM, MD, García-Sánchez V MD, PhD entitled " Faecal calprotectin: management in inflammatory bowel disease" is a clear and concise review with the aim to provide a practical overview of the role of FC in different clinical settings. The paper is interesting, well written, sufficiently exhaustive and accurate. It can be useful and relevant for clinical practice and I have no criticism or major concern to raise. There are only several typographical errors.
