COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This is a well-written philosophical commentary and report of a media event that took place in Porto, Portugal. The only issue is if this is the right journal for this commentary?

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The discussion about this topic is not bud. However, in my opinion it needs to be more enlarged and integrated. As an editorial comment could be accepted.

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

I think that this manuscript is a well written and elegant one. It is a general commentary about the Project "Movies & Health in Night talks". The authors talk of the great opportunity that physicians (Gastroenterologist in specific), have to share points of view with other persons (art specialists, and general public). The authors consider that physicians in general need to have these kind of discussions. It is good for doctors as well for general public. I believe that is a good manuscript that can published in the Journal without changes.
