SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The point of the study is interesting and valuable. However, I doubt whether the sentence "This 10-years follow-up study showed higher wear rates in CoC with cup inclination as a predictive factor for wear. " in the core tip part is really consistent with the results of this study.

The researcher's work should be appreciated and the long-term results for COC needs to be excavated further in future. This paper provides meaningful information.
