SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

A very fantatstic paper . Although as you stted there some discripancies in literature you had some results resembeling some single centres as one published from Turkey. In that paper as in yours, there was a number diagnosed by rütine screening with CT primarily. mortality resembeles your results. very big dtabases as you mentioned are heterogenous. we know some centres with very high mortality . but most of time as many papers early admisiison and followuap was a key.

This is a unique single study of the experience in a relatively large number of patients with hemodialysis. It is well done and well written and can be accepted as is. Ys
