SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The present manuscript is about The role of palliative medicine in nephrology. The topic is interesting and of nowadays interest. Concerns: The authors describe the many types of palliative medicine, but they do not define it. Moreover, it would be useful to concentrate more on the aspects of palliative medicine in nephrology when describing the three types they mention. I think the Case Report is non-contributory. Should be deleted. Authors do not comment on the key role Bioethical committees play at hospital when decisions are to be made on palliative care. Authors are to mention the ways palliative medicine can be tailored to each individual working together the this committee, plus the ellaboration of documents to guide physicians institutionally. References do not follow WJN model. Major polishing of the English language. Many abbreviations have not been explained, as RPA/ASN.
