COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Congratulations for work, well written. Should be modified the 4-5, 17-19 and 23-26 line of the Introduction because equal to those of the Abstract The images are poor of quality: if possible, replace them and if available add pictures of the new endoscopic techniques proposed to increase the specificity of biopsy sampling: such as "water immersion" and "confocal endomicroscopy" If possible add Villanacci's classification for the staging of coeliac disease because different centers use it more and more advantage To date, there is a burgeoning literature about gluten sensitivity, it may be interesting to mention this problem
