

Dear Editors and Reviewers:

Thank you very much for your comments regarding our manuscript. We have carefully revised the manuscripts per your suggestion.

There are some issues need to be addressed. -----1. Please further revise the manuscript according to the re-review comments: I would change the conclusion to: In conclusion, the current HSCT-SOS diagnosis depends on the revised EBMT, Seattle, or Baltimore criteria, critically aiding which play an important role in the diagnosis and treatment of such potential serious complications of HSCT., but its though a serious disadvantage lies in its inaccuracy (inability) of an is that it is difficult to diagnose early diagnosis. As a non-invasive detection technology, LSM can detect abnormalities before clinical symptoms, which providing the possibility for an early diagnosis of SOS. Limitations of the current study is still a small sample study include its small size, thus further multi-center, prospective, large-sample studies are needed to verify our findings.

A: Thank you for all revised.

-----2. We are very pleased to receive your revised manuscript (No. 78014). However, after our verification, we found that the language editing company mentioned in your submitted language certificate only polished the initial manuscript. Following the many changes that were introduced into the content of your manuscript during the revision process, some language problems exist in the revised manuscript. Further language polishing is required to fix all grammatical, syntactical, formatting and other related errors, in order to meet the publication requirement (Grade A). Now, you are requested to send the revised manuscript to a professional English language editing company or a native English-speaking expert to polish the language further. When you submit the subsequent polished manuscript to us, you must provide a new language certificate along with it. Once this step is completed, your manuscript will be quickly accepted and published online. Please visit the following website for the professional English language editing companies we recommend: <https://www.wjgnet.com/bpg/gerinfo/240>.

A: We have sended the revised manuscript to a professional English language editing company again.(<https://app.editage.cn>)
