

Dear editor,

We revised our manuscript carefully according to the reviewer's comments and replied the comments point by point as follows. The revised part was marked in red in the manuscript. The manuscript was performed language polishing by a professional English language editing company. Thank you.

Reviewer's comments:

1. Therefore, you may delete this "and literature review" from the title.

Re: According to the reviewer's comment, "and literature review" was deleted from the title.

2. There are some errors in Medical English such as this sentence "Previous studies have reported only a few sporadic cases of lipofibroadenomas". It should be carefully rechecked.

Re: The sentence was revised.

3. The first paragraph of Discussion is a discussion, but repetition to that mentioned before. It should be deleted.

Re: The first paragraph of Discussion was deleted.

4. The authors said that lipofibroadenoma is extremely rare case although they mentioned 3 cases. Please, clarify this point in discussion.

Re: This Point was added in discussion.

5. The first reference is missing its website link. It should be added.

Re: The website link was added.
