

Answering Reviewers

Reviewer #1:

Scientific Quality: Grade B (Very good)

Language Quality: Grade A (Priority publishing)

Conclusion: Accept (General priority)

Specific Comments to Authors: The authors present a case based review of bicuspid aortic valve and associated supra- and subvalvular pathologies. It is written very well and explains the diagnostic and therapeutic challenges very well. The use of various imaging modalities utilized to arrive at an accurate diagnosis is reviewed.

Thank you for your comment on this review article, which accurately describes everything as stated.

Reviewer #2:

Scientific Quality: Grade B (Very good)

Language Quality: Grade B (Minor language polishing)

Conclusion: Accept (General priority)

Specific Comments to Authors: - well written review on bicuspid aortic valve, and associated morbidities, focusing on diagnosis and management..

Thank you for your comment and recognition of this review article as valuable in the literature.