

Dear Reviewers:

Thank you very much for your comments and suggested changes concerning our manuscript entitled “Difficult airway due to cervical haemorrhage caused by spontaneous rupture of a parathyroid adenoma: a case report” (NO: 81965). Those comments are all valuable and very helpful for revising and improving our manuscript. We have studied comments carefully and have made correction which we hope meet with approval. A point-by-point response to your suggestions is as flowing:

1. The relationship and mechanism between hyperparathyroidism and spontaneous cervical haemorrhage of a parathyroid adenoma has been added in the discussion of the manuscript.
2. According to the records, we show the process of the event in chronological order (Figure 3) and add in the manuscript.
3. We added patient information, including weight, height, BMI and laboratory data in the manuscript, but according to the requirements of the submission system, the above information cannot be summarized in a table. We also upload the table as table file, hoping it can be useful.

Personal information, family history and laboratory examinations
