

Dear Reviewers:

Please see my point-by-point response below to the concerns raised for this manuscript.

Step 1. Please revise your manuscript according to the reviewers' comments. To access the reviewers' comments, please log into the Express Submission and Peer-review System (ESPS) by entering your registered e-mail: dbloomfieldmd@aol.com and user password: 979828 under the "Author Track Manuscripts" heading at <http://www.wjnet.com/esps/trackmanuscript.aspx>. You are expected to address each of the points raised by the reviewers in a response letter that is to accompany your resubmission. Please download the manuscript file edited by the editor, located in the "Manuscript" column, by clicking the link and the title line. You will find the editor's suggestions in the edited manuscript file, which have been added using the Track Changes function. All of the revisions that you make to the revised manuscript should be cited in the response letter and highlighted in the updated version of the manuscript. In order to continually improve the quality of peer-review for our journals, we urge authors to carefully revise their manuscripts according to the peer-reviewers' comments and we promote productive academic interactions between the peer-reviewers, the authors, and our readers. To this end, we include each of the reviewers' comments, in an anonymized manner, as well as the authors' responses along with the manuscript's publication online.

This has been addressed – the manuscript with tracked changes has been uploaded.

Step 2. Please update the manuscript according to the Guidelines and Requirements for Manuscript Revision-Minireview. You can find the Guidelines and Requirements for Manuscript Revision-Minireview, which includes the detailed writing requirements for the Title, Running Title, Authorship, Abstract, Keywords, Core Tip, Academic Rules and Norms, Tables and Illustrations, Comments and References, as an attachment.

This has been addressed.

Step 3. Please provide an Audio Core Tip. In order to attract readers to read your full-text article, we request that the author make an audio file describing the final core tip of the manuscript. This audio file will be published online, along with your article. Acceptable file formats are .mp3, .wav, or .aiff.

The Audio Core Tip, in mp3 format, has been uploaded

Step 4. Please subject the manuscript to CrossCheck analysis and the final title to Google Scholar search, and store screenshot images of the results. CrossCheck powered by iThenticate (document checking software) is an initiative started by CrossRef to help its members actively engage in efforts to prevent scholarly and professional plagiarism. We strongly suggest that you perform a check of your revised manuscript before resubmission using the CrossCheck program available at <http://www.crossref.org/crosscheck/index.html> and of the final title using Google Scholar at <http://scholar.google.com/>.

We have spoken with CrossCheck and realized there was nothing that we needed to do.

Please see Google Scholar title search below. Note the first title is the abstract published in the Journal of Cardiology, as this was presented as a poster at the World Congress on Heart Disease.

The screenshot shows a Google Scholar search results page. The search query is "DECODING WHITE COAT HYPERTENSION". The results list several articles, including "DECODING WHITE COAT HYPERTENSION" by DA Bloomfield, "Reference values for self-recorded blood pressure: a meta-analysis of summary data" by L Thijs et al., "The international database of self-recorded blood pressures in normotensive and untreated hypertensive subjects" by L Thijs et al., "Task Force IV: Clinical use of ambulatory blood pressure monitoring" by L Bellin et al., "Recurrence of hypertensive disorder in second pregnancy" by S Hjartardottir et al., "Placebo does not lower ambulatory blood pressure" by AG Dupont et al., "[PDF] Evaluation of blood pressure measuring devices with special reference to ambulatory systems" by E O'Brien et al., and "[PDF] Ambulatory blood pressure measurement in the diagnosis and". The page also shows a sidebar with filters like "Articles", "Case law", "My library", "Any time", "Sort by relevance", and "Sort by date".

Step 5. Please provide the files related to academic rules and norms. The files related to academic rules and norms include the conflict-of-interest statement. You can find the detailed requirements in the Guidelines and Requirements for Manuscript Revision-Minireview and in the Format for Manuscript Revision-Minireview, both of which are provided as attachments.

A conflict of interest statement has been included in the manuscript.

Step 6. Please provide the approved grant application form(s) or funding agency copy of any approval document(s)/letter(s). For manuscripts supported by various foundations (i.e., charitable, not-for-profit organizations), the authors should provide a copy of the full approved grant application form(s) or funding agency copy of any approval document(s)/letter(s), consisting of the information section and body section in PDF format. The approved grant application form(s) or funding agency copy of any approval document(s)/letter(s) will be released online together with the manuscript in order for readers to obtain more information about the study and to increase the likelihood of subsequent citation.

Please do not fax the signed documents, but instead submit the scanned PDFs online or by e-mail.

The Copyright Assignment form is attached.

Revised manuscript has been uploaded.

Thank you for your consideration,

Dennis Bloomfield.
