

Answers to the Editor

1. Our policy for the Case Report manuscript requires the title to include the disease name, the number of cases, and the phrase “literature review”. In addition, the description of the paper as a literature review must be supported by the manuscript's content

The manuscript was written from the start as a presentation of a case report and literature review focusing on treatment. So literature review was already made from the beginning.

2. Please provide language certificate letter by professional English language editing companies (Classification of manuscript language quality evaluation is B).
