This is to submit the revision of the manuscript entitled "Management of cancer patients during COVID-19 pandemic at developing countries" to be considered for publication in the Journal as a review article, for the invitation received with the NO: 56745.

I would like to provide a detailed response to each of the comments made by the manuscript reviewers. All this changes are highlighted within the text.

Reviewer #1:

1.1 I recommend revision: The last paragraph of A(H1N1) since the list of three considerations are disconnected.

Response: It has been decided to edit the final paragraph in A (H1N1) section with objective of the 3 ideas are clear and cohesive in the text.

1.2. I believe that the future "will" in the last line of the first paragraph about SARS-CoV-2 pandemic should be substituted by a present tense

Response: After reviewing the article again, it was decided to accept the idea of the reviewer, the SARS-CoV-2 pandemic section was modified to change the verb tense from future to present.

Reviewer #2:

1. There are no specific comments to correct

Science Editor:

1. The key word "COVID-19" is missing in the title

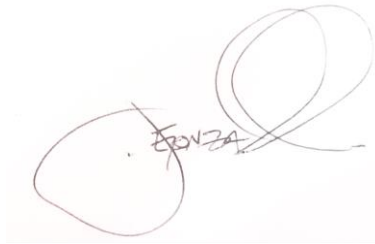

Response: We agree to change the title of the manuscript, with the intention of include

COVID-19 key word. Therefore, title of manuscript has been changed from “Cancer patient care in pandemic times at developing countries” to “Management of cancer patients during COVID-19 pandemic at developing countries”

We hope that our responses and adjustments to the manuscript will be liked by the reviewers and the Editorial Board

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely yours,
