Dear Editor,

Thank you for your promising decision on our manuscript titled, "Pathogens causing diarrhoea among Bangladeshi children with malignancy: Results from two pilot studies". We thankfully appreciate that the reviewer considers the manuscript to be "relatively well-written".

We have now polished the language including punctuations, double checked the data and where needed fixed the figures and texts.

We have uploaded two versions of the manuscript one with, and another without track changes.

We hope you will now be able to publish the manuscript in your esteemed journal.

Yours sincerely,

Harunor Rashid, on behalf of the authors
