

Answering Reviewers

Dear Editor of the World Journal of Clinical Cases

Thank you very much for your informative letters with regard our manuscript (Implanted expander for the correction of high-riding nipple with enlarged nipple-areola complex using revision mastopexy: A case report).

Herein we have resubmitted the revised manuscript.

According to the instructions and constructive suggestions raised by the editors and reviewers, we responded to the issues point by point.

Reviewer 1:

This is a well-written case report which follows all the criteria of CARE checklist. This paper presents an original technique that responds to complicated cases of high-nipple and enlarged nipple-areola complex with very good results, and identifies all possible limitations as well as further implications to study. Additionally, the photographs provided certificate their technique and their result.

Answer: We appreciate your important comment. This case offers a feasible option in case of severe postoperative nipple elevation and areola dilatation, providing aesthetically pleasing results with high patient satisfaction. Thank you for your review.

Reviewer 2:

The paper is suitable for publication

Answer: Thanks for your affirmation.