(3) comments from Reviewer 02450799

---- The authors stated that tissue-specific samples are more appropriate for analysing mtDNA polymorphisms (vs. blood samples). While the reviewer agreed with this statement, the comparison of results from colon-ileum tissues vs. blood will be very encouraging.

Response: Thanks for the reviewer's good suggestions. Analysing mtDNA polymorphisms in blood samples will be included for further study but we didn't have blood samples of the participants in present study.
