Title: Hepatitis B virus mutations related to liver disease progression of Korean patients

Author: Bum-Joon Kim

Name of Journal: World Journal of Gastroenterology

ESPS Manuscript NO: 5750

The manuscript has been improved according to the suggestions of reviewers:

1 Format has been updated

2 Revision has been made according to the suggestions of the reviewer

(1) Reviewer 1

This is a comprehensive review of the role of HBV mutations in the characteristics of chronic hepatitis B in South Korea. It is written by an expert on the field, who contribute substantially to the current knowledge on the topic. Major comment: Even though the review focuses on South Korean patients, I think it would be much more appealing if it could include a small section on the frequency and relevance of the described mutations in other populations. Minor comments: Please define OECD.

- ➔ According to reviewer's comment, I added the following sentences and a reference regarding the prevalence of BCP double mutations in Taiwanese. (Page 11-12, Line 335-340)
- ➔ I explained the OECD nations, and highlighted the sentence in the revised manuscript. (Page 3, Line 75-76)

(2) Reviewer 2

Excellent paper The paper is to be published within 4 weeks. On line 67 the authors should explain that means OECD nations.

- ➔ I explained the OECD nations, and highlighted the sentence in the revised manuscript. (Page 3, Line 75-76)

(3) Reviewer 3

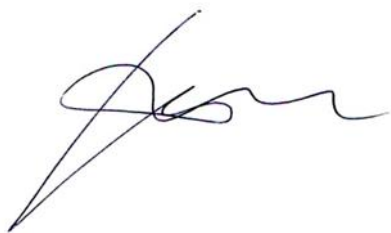

This review is very informative. It should be published.

3 References and typesetting were corrected.

4 A Figure was uploaded as a separated file.

Thank you again for publishing our manuscript in the World Journal of Gastroenterology.

Sincerely yours,
