RE: The management of neuroblastoma in limited-resource settings

Dear Madam

Thank you for accepting our article for publication.

We have attended to the follow in accordance to your comments:

1) Manuscript structure

The whole article was restructured according to the publisher's guidelines and sequence. Author names were written according to specifications, authorship credit was more clearly defined and the highlights were included.

2) Figure for format purposes

The original figure in a word format has been provided for publishing purposes.

3) Scientific quality

The reviewer didn't request any improvements to the manuscript.

4) Language quality

The language was edited by a first language language editor. Comments did not stipulate further revision.

5) Special requirements for figures

No editing was done but a word document version was provided for publishing purposes.

6) Special requirements for tables

All spacing was corrected and bold fonts removed.

7) Special requirements for references

References were rechecked and edited according to publication specifications. PMID and DOIs rechecked.

8) Ethical documents

Was complete with original submission.

9) Approved grant application form(s) or funding agency copy of any approval document(s)

Was complete with original submission.

I hope you look favourably upon the revision of our article.

Sincerely

Dr Jaques van Heerden
