

Reviewer Remark	Author Response	Manuscript Change
Reviewer #1
Title reflects the main subject of manuscript, but doesn't identify the report as a systematic review	Thank you for your review of the manuscript. The title has been changed to reflect this report as a systematic review	Systematic Review of Single Stage Revision for Prosthetic Joint Infection
Abstract summarizes the work described in the manuscript adequately, but doesn't provide a structure.	We agree and have reworded the abstract to reflect the structure of the review article.	Here we review the history of single stage revision arthroplasty, discuss the key principles, highlight the indications and contraindications, and review the reported outcomes with a focus on future developments of single stage revision arthroplasty for hip and knee periprosthetic joint infections.
Key words. The key words reflect the focus of the manuscript, but the different keywords are very similar. prosthetic joint infection, single stage revision, single stage exchange arthroplasty, revision total joint arthroplasty, one stage revision for chronic prosthetic infection, and revision joint replacement		Key words have been changed to reflect the manuscript and increase diversity in the diction chosen. prosthetic joint infection; single stage; revision total joint arthroplasty; total knee arthroplasty; infection
Table 1 could be improved	We agree and have restructured table 1 to make it more visually appealing and readable	See table 1 for edits

Author contribution section		The author contribution section has been added to the manuscript.

I found the authors did not add the PMID and DOI in the reference list. Please provide the PubMed numbers and DOI citation numbers to the reference list and list all authors of the references. Please revise throughout; and (5) the author should number the references in Arabic numerals according to the citation order in the text. The reference numbers will be superscripted in square brackets at the end of the sentence with the citation content or after the cited author's name, with no spaces.		The PMID and DOI for each reference has been added and revised throughout. References are numbered using Arabic numerals, and reference numbers are now superscripted in square brackets.
