Dear Shui Qiu:

Thank you very much for your feedback and instructions. Here as requested is a letter outlining the changes that have been made to the manuscript. The changes have also been highlighted for easier reading, per your instructions.

- We have added a statement describing what roles the author performed in creating the manuscript.
- We have added an Abstract and a Core Tip.
- We have adjusted the formatting of the citations and references to meet your requirements.
- We revise the manuscript as the reviews suggested.

The above were the items mentioned on the manuscript itself. In addition to that, we have followed the instructions in the email you sent on 4 December, and have included all the requested documents.

If you have additional questions, please do not hesitate to get in touch.

Kind regards,
