COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

General Comments: This is a well-written, highly informative manuscript. The authors have addressed an important topic and provided an excellent review of the use of stem cells for treating disorders of the cornea. The abstract provides a clear synopsis of the review and the authors provide a comprehensive narrative of the development of using stem cells for corneal transplants. Usually, citation numbers are put at the end of the sentence, with the period following the numbers. Specific Comments/Suggestions: P4, L6 (from bottom): change "overtime" to "over time" P7 (last line): put comma after "sources" P8 (first line): put space between "cat" and "[89]" and put comma after "[80]". P9, L3: put comma after "activity" P9, L 7-8 (from bottom): symbols did not print in my copy. P10, L4: change "factor added" to "factor is added"
