JOURNAL EDITOR-IN-CHIEF (ASSOCIATE EDITOR) COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

1. Language refinement is needed, e.g. in the abstract, "... but more studies are still needed before it can be used a useful clinical tool." is grammatically incorrect. 2. A review on similar topics has recently been published (Journal of Clinical & Translational Endocrinology 2014(1): 85-91), which should be referenced. 3. Taking the above review as an example, images, charts and tables are helpful to make the paper more illustrative.
