

To The Editor,

Please find attached a paper that we would like to submit for publication (ID:70307 - The Test of Incremental Respiratory Endurance as home-based, stand-alone therapy in COPD: A case report).

Given that our senior co-author Lawrence Patrick Cahalin is native English speaker with fluent US English language, who write, read and approved last version of manuscript, we would like to kindly ask if this requirement could be waived.

Kind regards,

Ladislav Batalik, PT., PhD
