TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Cagliari, 05/08/2021

This is to certify that the paper entitled “Clinical and epidemiological features of Ulcerative Colitis patients in Sardinia, Italy: Results from a multicenter study” written by a non-English speaker, has been proofread by a native English speaker, working at University Language Center of Cagliari University

This is to stay that the language content has reached Grade A

Yours faithfully,

Dott. Salvatore Magri
University of Cagliari
