To Whom it May Concern:

I, Noreen Turyn, am a journalist in the United States of America, working for a TV station in the city of Lynchburg in the state of Virginia.

Dr. Marianna Luongo asked me to edit her report for grammar, spelling and usage, to make sure she was using the English language properly. I corrected a few errors and sent it back to her. I made no changes to the content of her work or her findings.

Sincerely,
