CERTIFICATE OF ENGLISH EDITING

11/13/2017

To whom it may concern:

This letter certifies that the manuscript entitled: “Comparison of totally laparoscopic total gastrectomy using an endoscopic linear stapler with laparoscopic–assisted total gastrectomy using a circular stapler in patients with gastric cancer: a single–center experience” by Gong et al. has been edited by a professional English editor of the Scientific Publications Team at Asan Medical Center.

This manuscript was edited for proper use of the English language, grammar, punctuation, spelling, and style. We cannot guarantee the accuracy of the research content or objectives of the author. While this certificate confirms that the document is grammatically correct, the author may accept or reject our suggestions after our editing process is complete and prior to submission to a journal.

Please contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Joon Seo Lim, Ph.D.
