

Dear editor in chief,

I, Dr. Houpu Xu, have been reviewed carefully the manuscript "Tumor-infiltrating Platelets Predict Postoperative Recurrence and Survival in Resectable Pancreatic Neuroendocrine Tumor".

My mother tongue is English and as a medical scientist myself I am well acquainted with the formulation and presentation of scientific reports.

After my revision, I consider the manuscript to have reach Grade A in English level and being appropriate for submission in your journal.

Best regards,
