Dear Professor Ghosh,

We would kindly ask you to consider our manuscript The burden of pancreatic cancer originates in childhood? for publication in World Journal of Gastroenterology. Unfortunately, we were not able to obtain the language certificate for non-native English speakers prior to submission.

Since we wanted to keep in the frame of the deadline for this article submission, we have uploaded our manuscript for language editing service with Filopodia Publishing. Please find below the proof of submitting our manuscript for obtaining language certification for non-native English speakers.

We apologize for this inconvenience and we hope you can still consider our submitted manuscript.

Yours respectfully,

Professor Smaranda Diaconescu MD, PhD
