

To the World Journal of Gastroenterology,

We would like to inform you that the revised manuscript entitled “Challenges and Opportunities in the application of Artificial Intelligence in Gastroenterology and Hepatology,” which is currently under consideration for publication in your Journal, has been comprehensively edited by the senior author, who is a native English speaker, for any grammatical, semantical/stylistic and typographical errors as you suggested.

Sincerely,

George Tsoulfas, MD, PhD, FICS, FACS
