To whom it may concern,

I am writing to certify that I am a native speaker of English living in Slovakia, that for the past 18 years I have made my living translating documents from Slovak into English and proofreading documents in the English language, and that I have proofread the article:

“Diagnostic tools for fecal incontinence: scoring systems are the crucial first step”

by Peter Liptak, Martin Duricek and Peter Banovcin

Please feel free to contact me regarding this manuscript, if necessary.

Sincerely,

DAVID LEE McLEAN
